ARTS

everywhere

Dear Art Lover,

Welcome to LEXARTS HOP!

Since 1994, downtown Lexington has come alive and artful as galleries and museums, artists' studios, and other creative spaces have opened their doors on third Fridays. Now happening every other month, HOP is LexArts'—and Lexington's —signature event. We and the 40-plus partner venues you'll find listed in these pages welcome you to our inspired downtown!

HOP began as a way to encourage everyone to look at and buy art—and that is still its mission. Affordable, unique pieces in many media, in every genre are on view at HOP sites. Often you can meet the artists themselves and learn about their work first hand. Collecting need not be mysterious or expensive. You can own beautiful objects on any budget. And discover fascinating friends and fresh ideas as well.

No one has yet to visit every HOP venue on a single Friday night. We don't recommend trying! But, we do encourage you to visit as many or as few as you like—and to come back the next time to experience new exhibitions and new sites. This guide will tell you when the sites have regular hours as well.

We're thrilled to welcome back McBrayer McGinnis Leslie & Kirkland as our HOP Sponsor. With their help, we're able to produce this comprehensive 2019 HOP Guide, as well as make upgrades to the HOP website, now accessed at LEXARTS.org.

Happy HOPping!
